

*Fernando Carreño, awarded
“Lawyer of the year - under 40”
by Global Competition Review (GCR)*

---

We are pleased to announce that Fernando Carreño, head of our antitrust practice was awarded “Lawyer of the year - under 40” by Global Competition Review (GCR). This is the first time that a Mexican lawyer is recognized with this award.

This worldwide recognition is granted by GCR to “a competition lawyer under the age of 40 whose superior technical skill, practical judgement and excellence in client service in 2017 demonstrate that he or she is the very best in the field.”

We express our gratitude to our clients and friends for entrusting us with their most relevant and sophisticated matters. It is an honor and a privilege to work with you.

Sincerely,

Von Wobeser & Sierra, S.C.

Mexico City, April 11st, 2018