

Update: Suspension of legal terms and deadlines for the Federal Ministry of Energy

Today the Federal Ministry of Energy ("SENER") published in the Official Federal Gazette the "Ruling that modifies the ruling establishing the suspension of time periods and legal terms in the Federal Ministry of Energy, as a preventive measure against the spread of the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic" ("Ruling").

The Ruling establishes that the suspension of time periods and legal terms for acts and proceedings carried out by and with the SENER established in the "Ruling establishing the suspension of time periods and legal terms in the Federal Ministry of Energy, as a preventive measure against the spread of the coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic" published in the Official Federal Gazette on March 25, 2020, will be extended until April 30, 2020.

During the abovementioned period, the acts, notices, requests and filings presented before SENER will be considered as if they were filed on May 4, 2020.
