

Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C. announces two new Partners and new Of Counsel

We are proud to announce that we have bolstered our firm with two new Partner promotions and a new Of Counsel. With these strategic additions, our partner count rises to 16 and reinforces our firm's full-service offering.

Patricia Kaim was promoted to Partner. She brings to the table more than 15 years of experience in the Practice of Industrial & Intellectual Property. She is a Mexican and US-trained international attorney and has advised international leading companies. Her law degree (J.D. equivalent), cum laude, was achieved in the Escuela Libre de Derecho, in Mexico City, additionally she has a Master of Laws Degree (LL.M.), International Business & Trade Law, from New York City's Fordham University.

Alberto Córdoba was also named Partner after accruing more than 15 years of experience in the Practice of Corporate, Mergers & Acquisitions and Joint Ventures. He also has expertise in our Energy & Natural Resources Industry Group. He obtained his Law Degree (J.D. equivalent) at the Escuela Libre de Derecho in Mexico City. He then furthered his studies by receiving a Master of Laws Degree (LL.M) in International and European Business, Competition & Regulatory Law from the Freie Universität, in Berlin.

In addition to the new Partners, Former Justice of Mexico's Supreme Court, Margarita Luna Ramos joins Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C. as Of Counsel, where she will focus her work in Von Wobeser y Sierra, S.C. on arbitration without participation in litigation. She brings more than 40 years of experience in Mexico's Federal Judicial Branch. She has been a pioneer in various positions in the Mexican legal field. She was the first woman president of the Association of Court Clerks of the Supreme Court (1985); the first woman to preside over a national meeting of District Judges (1992); the first woman Magistrate in Electoral matters (1994); the first woman designated Federal Judicial Council Member by exam (2003); President of the Gender Equality Committee of the Federal Judicial Branch (2015); President of the Gender Commission of the Ibero-American Judicial Summit; Vice President of the International Association of Women Judges (IAWJ, 2018), among others.
