

The USMCA will enter into force on July 1, 2020

Today the U.S. Trade Representative notified the U.S. Congress that both Mexico and Canada had adopted the measures necessary to fulfill their commitments under the U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA). With this, the United States became the third and last party to notify the others that it completed its internal procedures for the implementation of the USMCA, which will enter into force on July 1, 2020.
