

Extension of the suspension in the activities and terms of the Federal Court of Administrative Justice

Due to the COVID-19 contingency, on April 28, 2020 the official communication SS/12/2020, issued by the Plenary of the Superior Chamber of the Federal Court of Administrative Justice (TFJA), was published on the official website of that Court, extending the initial suspension of activities and terms that ran from March 18 to May 05, 2020 until May 29, 2020.

In the aforementioned communication it is also established that, despite the fact that the TFJA offices will remain closed and the terms suspended, the Jurisdictional Plenary and the Sections of the Superior Chamber will meet through the video conference system during May, in order to discuss and resolve the cases for which a ruling has already been drafted.

All pending briefs and documents may be filed before the TFJA beginning on June 1, 2020, including those whose term expired during the suspension period.
