On June 3, 2020 the Ruling SS/13/2020 issued by the Plenary of the Superior Chamber of the Mexican Court of Administrative Justice (TFJA) was published in the Official Federal Gazette (DOF), by means of which the suspension of activities and deadlines has been extended; therefore, the TFJA will remain closed and the terms will be suspended until June 15, 2020.

The extension is with the exception of the proceedings filed before the Specialized Chamber for Online Proceedings, through the Online Justice System; in this case, the terms began to run from June 1, 2020.

Finally, days and hours were enabled for notification through the judicial bulletin or in person before the TFJA of the decisions issued during the suspension period. These notifications will take effect on the first business day on which the TFJA resumes its activities.
